11 Community Information Specialist Wendi Jackson thanked everyone for coming and introduced
12 City Manager Faith Miller who thanked the Commission for their service and acknowledged 13 several accomplishments of the current Commission over the past five (5) years.

15 A. Recognition of outgoing Commissioners.

16
17 Mrs. Jackson introduced presentations in honor of Commissioner Deyette, Vice Mayor McFall-18 Conte and Mayor Mulder and Ms. Miller presented each of them with a plaque commemorating 19 their years of service to the City of Deltona.

21 Commissioner Deyette stated that she has thoroughly enjoyed serving the citizens of Deltona over 22 the last five years and she is proud of her accomplishments. She stated she has served the citizens 23 honestly and to the best of her ability, she ran a clean and honest campaign, and she wished the 24 City and its citizens well. She stated she enjoyed serving the City on the Transportation Planning 25 Organization (TPO) Board, she has worked hard to look out for Deltona's tax money and she is 26 proud of having a hand in designing the transportation plans for moving citizens to and from the 27 rail station, she has advocated for a park and ride and for a circulator station. She stated she looks 28 forward to John Masiarczyk taking over and she has confidence he will do well. She wished the 29 Commission well and she hopes they will learn to work together for the good of the City. She 30 stated while in her position as Commissioner she has discovered it is a whole new world, the job is 31 not as easy as it looks from the outside, as a Commissioner you are no longer the decision maker
32 of your household or business or organization but, the servant of the people. She stated a 33 Commissioner's job is not to impose their own will on the people but, to listen to the people, to 34 serve the majority of the citizens and listen to their wishes. She stated the newly elected 35 Commissioners will discover whether public service is in their blood and she wished the 36 Commission well. She stated she will now spend more time with her husband, partner, friend and 37 business partner and try to reclaim her house.

39 Vice Mayor McFall-Conte stated being able to serve on the Commission has not been about how 40 many votes she has been on the majority or the minority on because there have been both and it
41 has not been about the City's successes or failures because again, there have been both. She stated
42 being able to serve on the Commission for nine (9) years has been about serving the community
43 she was fortunate to grow up in and she was able to give back to the community who gave her so 44 much as she was growing up and she hoped will continue to give her children as they grow up.
45 She stated she has enjoyed working with a diverse group of Commissioners, most of whom have 46 taught her a lot. Some of which are on the dais, some are in the audience and one (1) special one 47 who is no longer with us. She stated these Commissioners taught her to find her own voice, not to

1 be afraid to voice her own opinion, to respect the office of Commissioner and the people in those 2 offices even if she disagreed with another Commissioner, and to respect the people that are hired
3 as Charter Officers even if a she did not always see eye to eye with them. To the new and 4 returning Commissioners be willing to compromise. Some of the best decisions the Commission
5 can make is because of discussions that the Commission has had and compromised from whatever 6 the original position was. She asked the Commission to please remember to work with staff and 7 respect the job that staff does, to come to the position with an open mind and not a closed mind 8 and most importantly to not let others bully them into making a decision one way or the other but 9 to vote their conscious and no one else's. She stated looking back as a two (2) term elected 10 official she realized just as taking a Country takes all its citizens no matter what political party,
11 changing the City takes everyone in the community as well as everyone in City Hall and in elected 12 office. She stated to borrow the line from Hillary Clinton "it takes a village to raise a child" she 13 happens to think it takes a whole community to raise a City and help it grow. She stated she is 14 proud to have been here the past nine (9) years to watch the City grow and she looks forward to 15 continuing to watch it grow but, this time as a citizen on her couch watching it on TV.

17 Mayor Mulder stated it seemed as though five (5) years is a very long time and several people 18 have said to him over the years, people that come up to the podium to speak, that if you are an 19 intelligent person you can say a lot in a few minutes so do not worry about the time that people
20 have to speak. He stated he has said a lot in five (5) years so he is not going to say much more 21 tonight other than it has truly been a pleasure to work with everyone in the community and he can 22 honestly say that anyone he has worked with on the staff and on the Commission in their own
23 individual ways have taught him something. He stated people in the community have taught him 24 things about what kind of community Deltona is and what kind of person and leader that he was 25 which he was not aware of. He thanked everyone that stays involved in the community, it has 26 been more than a pleasure to do his job as Mayor and he would not change anything for the world.

She dedicated this honor to her mother who is present but, was not present in 2005 and she is here in 2010 by the grace of God. She stated she is grateful and she thanked everyone.

2 Vice Mayor Treusch thanked his fellow Commissioners for electing him as Vice Mayor and he 3 will do the best he can. He stated tonight brings mixed emotions for him seeing friends leave and 4 making new friends and seeing the Commission changing. He stated he guesses that every 5 Commissioner has had the same mixed emotions and he hoped that the Commission can move
6 forward and do the best it can for Deltona. He stated Deltona is a great City and it is a great place 7 to be from.

8
9 Mayor Masiarczyk stated he would be remiss if he did not point out the friends, especially his 10 family who is present as friends and business people in the community that supported him through 11 the campaign. He thanked each and every candidate who ran for office because it takes a lot to be 12 a candidate whether win, lose, or draw. He stated the elected Commissioners on the dais are the 13 fortunate ones and all the hard work the supporters did is appreciated. He stated the business 14 community is looking at the Commission to not only foster their rights to live, survive and grow in 15 Deltona but, to help increase that in the future which starts tomorrow in the first workshop. He
